Walking Among the Dead

A Tour of Tri-Town Graveyards

By Kenneth J. Souza

The nearly barren trees hover like grinning, arthritic witches over the illegible facades of long-since-forgotten tombstones. They stand like soldiers at ease — once in formation, they now slump in odd directions, indifferent to the cold fall air. Names of pioneers and ancestors who roamed the very same land once known wholly as Rochester are etched in perpetuity on their fading surfaces.

These are the historic and memorial cemeteries scattered throughout the tri-town area. Most have fallen by the wayside and are no longer used to provide a place of eternal rest for the departed souls who have passed on from this life. They remain solemn, silent. Most of the older ones are somewhat eerie and gloomy. An invisible pall hangs over them like a thick, early morning fog.

Yet, one can't casually walk through them without a swelling sense of pride in knowing that most of these people were responsible for forging a life for us today.

New England cemeteries and graveyards are among the most intriguing anywhere in the country. Most are the oldest of their kind, which probably lends them a certain degree of nostalgia and historic value.

But it's something more than that. They all invoke a character and class that forces introspection and appreciation for that which came before.

As students, we all read about the exploits of colonial Americans, fighting to break free from the tyrannical reign of King George in England. Although distant from their struggle, we all can appreciate and share in that sense of pride that is patriotism. And standing among the black slate tombstones that mark the burial sites of so many who lived through that awkward era remind us that freedom was won, but not without cost.

Today, with the exception of some exclusive period writings and artistic renditions, these small, rural graveyards remain our sole ties to the past. A reminder of that colossal battle for freedom over 200 years ago.

Touring the quaint little Quaker Cemetery in Marion just days before the autumnal holiday of All Hallow's Eve, the fresh-fallen leaves seemed to provide an appropriate decor for the scratched and fungus-overgrown grave markers which boast the names of familiar town forefathers: Mendell, Holmes, Handy, Gurney, Hathaway.

Near the front and center of the 200- by 67-foot graveyard is a plaque in memory of those buried there: "Within this inclosure lie the remains of 326 friends." A similar plaque marks a large, open section of the town's Little Neck Cemetery, where many of the early settlers of Marion were buried in unmarked graves for fear that the Indians would discover how many had been killed in battle. It simply states: "In memory of the unknown buried within these bounds."

Sadly, many of these cemeteries have fallen into a state of disrepair — especially those which are no longer used for burials. Some of the more ancient and historic tombstones and gravemarkers are now chipped, weathered and decayed. Each town has made efforts through its historical committees and boards to help preserve the more prominent gravesites of important figures ... but only so much can be accomplished with limited funding available for such projects.

"We've tried to get some people to do rubbings of these older tombstones," said Marion Cemetery Commissioner Ann Washburn recently. "At least this way we'll have something left when the markers have gone."

Unlike Mattapoisett where each cemetery is governed over and maintained by individual boards and commissioners, both Marion and Rochester have a single group of Cemetery Commissioners which provide for the care and maintenance of all town cemeteries.

Marion boasts several wonderful little graveyards along with its more prominent Old Landing and Evergreen Cemeteries, both on Route 6. In addition to the Quaker Cemetery (also known as the Methodist Cemetery) and the Little Neck Cemetery on Hermitage Road, there is also the North Marion Cemetery.

Rochester has several similar finds in its two oldest burial grounds — an unnamed plot on Braley Hill Road and the Woodside Cemetery on County Road. Probably the most notable in town is the Sherman Cemetery across from Memorial School on Pine Street. This typical New England graveyard is framed with a metal bar and granite fence enclosure and offers some of the more interesting tombstones in the area. More prominent names grace gravesite after gravesite in this historic plot.

In addition to several other privately owned and maintained lots scattered throughout the 39-square-mile town, there are four other public cemeteries: the North Rochester Cemetery, the Union Cemetery on Walnut Plain Road, the Hillside Cemetery on High Street, and the Ashley Cemetery on North Avenue.

Following a similar trend in having many smaller burial grounds, Mattapoisett also offers some seven different cemeteries throughout town. These include the Cushing Cemetery, the Pine Island Cemetery, St. Anthony's Cemetery on North Street, the Hammond Cemetery on River Road, the Ellis Cemetery on Wolf Island Road, and the Barlow Cemetery (also known as "The Old Indian Cemetery"), and the Quaker Cemetery on Route 6.

Most notable here is the Cushing Cemetery where most of the town's patriarchs and early settlers are buried. Most of the successful shipbuilders who forged a name for this small, waterfront town are now interred at the site. And just as many of the ships built in Mattapoisett were both well-crafted and ornate, so too are many of the obelisks and monuments stretching upward from the hardening fall soil of this graveyard.

Of course, despite the intrinsic thrill of touring these many historic graveyards, one can't help but pause to consider if any tormented souls are waiting in the wings to take a midnight stroll this Halloween night. Surely there may be a spirit or two hoping to scare up a little fun during this appropriate holiday.

The question you may want to ask yourself is: are you willing to find out?

Carol Adams. Selectman Daniel O. Mahoney — caught in heavy traffic — arrived later at 7:30 pm.

Following the approval of the October 19, 1993 Board of Selectmen meeting minutes and the October 19 Executive Session minutes, the board then signed the payrolls, bills, and a permit for excavation for Denham Construction, Inc., to work on Oliver's Lane.

Meetings scheduled throughout the week include:

- Wednesday, October 27 - 28 — ORR Building Study Committee will be conducting interviews for architects at the ORR Library, with Selectman Lambalot attending.

- Thursday, October 28 — Plymouth County Selectmen's Association will hold a meeting in Bridgewater at 7:00 pm.

- Saturday, October 30 — Silent Auction will be conducted from 10:00 am to 12:00 noon at the Town Hall Conference Room. Items will include office equipment and Police Department confiscations.

- Monday, November 1 — Special Town Meeting, 7:30 pm in the Old Rochester Regional High School Auditorium.

- Tuesday, November 2 — Special Town Election, 10:00 am - 8:00 pm at the Old Hammondtown School.

Chairman DeCosta next reviewed incoming correspondence for the week. First, the Department of Environmental Protection (DEP) submitted notice of a meeting to be held on Thursday, November 4 at 2:30 pm to discuss wellhead protection requirements for Mattapoisett's #5 well. The meeting will be held at the DEP Office on Route 105 in Lakeville.

The Department of Revenue (DEP) certified the Free Cash figure for the town of Mattapoisett at $194,681.

Copies of a letter from Sen. Kerry and Sen.

Kennedy, along with Rep. Barney Frank, was submitted to the United States EPA relative to the New Bedford Harbor Superfund site. Chairman DeCosta attended a meeting relative to this matter on Sunday, October 24. As a result of the meeting, a search will be conducted for a third party to uncover alternate methods of disposal. The PCB's are not the only consideration, Chairman DeCosta said. The metals at the site, if incinerated, will generate gases more harmful than the PCB's. Chairman DeCosta also commented "It was a good meeting and I'll continue to work on it."

Correspondence was also received from the Department of Environmental Protection (DEP) which classified the town's landfill as posing a "potential threat" to public health and the environment. The EPA requires the installation of groundwater monitoring no later than July 1, 1994. Chairman DeCosta commented, "We're in a lot better shape than some other towns."

Notice was then received indicating the Conservation Commission (ConCom) will hold a public hearing upon a Notice of Intent of William Morgan to

A note was received from Susan Grace thanking Chairman DeCosta for his attendance at the rallies sponsored by the Hands Across the River coalition. The next rally will be held on Sunday, October 31 at 2:00 pm at the foot of Sawyer Street.

Finally, notice was received that the Joint Transportation Planning meeting will be held on Wednesday, November 3 at 2:00 pm at the SRPEDD Office in Taunton.

Under the Executive Secretary's report, Ms. Adams noted that the Board of Appeals has requested the appointment of Gerard F. Oliva of 4 Jane Lane, currently an alternate member, as a full-time member. The Board appointed Mr. Oliva as requested. Next, Town Treasurer and Collector Kathleen Briggs notified the board that the 1994 preliminary real estate tax bills were mailed today.

At 7:30 pm the board met with the Water/Sewer Commission. Present were Cliff Tripp, Chairman William T. Nicholson, George Block, and Donald Wood. The meeting was a "trial run" for the presentation to be given at the Special Town Meeting next Monday. The presentation addressed Article 1, as a motion, and Question 1, which address the town's share of rehabilitation and the expansion of the Fairhaven Sewer Treatment Plant.

To date, the town has paid $704,000 for its share of the 250 gallons of sewerage per day brought to the plant of which the town is a 10 percent owner. The town owes Fairhaven $93,926.02 which, if financed through the Farmer's Home Administration, will affect FY 1995's tax rate by $1.50 per $100,000 for the first year of a twenty-year loan.

Mr. Nicholson stated that if the town approves the Article, the town will be able to begin payment before the due date of January 7, 1994. If the town fails to accept the Article, its debt to Fairhaven will increase due to the accumulation of interest as it has for this year. "It would be embarrassing if we failed to meet our contractual responsibility (to the Town of Fairhaven)," said Selectman Mahoney.

There being no other matters to come before the board, they unanimously voted to adjourn for the evening at 8:00 pm.

Marion Selectmen's Meeting October 26, 1993

A regular meeting of the Marion Board of Selectmen was called to order on Tuesday, October 26 at 7:00 pm by Chairman James S. Dougall. Also present were Selectman Loretta B. Schaefer, Selectman Albert E. Winters, Executive Secretary Ray E. Pickles, and Secretary Helene Craver.

approving the minutes of the October 19 meeting, the Chairman Dougall went over incoming correspondence for the week beginning with a memo from Executive Secretary Ray E. Pickles regarding the upcoming holiday office hours at Town House. Since Christmas and New Year's fall on a Saturday this year, many businesses are expected to close the day before the holiday, which would create a problem for the Town House as December 31 (Friday) is the last day to pay real estate taxes to have them included as a federal deduction.

Mr. Pickles recommended the following schedule as a solution to this dilemma. On Thanksgiving weekend, the Town House will close at 12:00 noon on Wednesday, November 24 and will reopen on Monday, November 29 at 8:00 am. By contract, the Town House must be closed on Thursday and Friday for Thanksgiving. During Christmas, the Town House will close at 4:30 pm on Wednesday, December 22 and reopen on Tuesday, December 28 at 8:00 am. For New Year's, the Town House will close at 3:30 pm on December 31 and reopen on Monday, January 3 at 8:00 am.

The board unanimously agreed to implement Mr. Pickles' holiday schedule recommendation.

Chairman Dougall noted that water testing was continuing throughout the week with promising results and today (Tuesday, October 26) the water samples tested zero counts of fecal coliform. The town would need to have three consecutive days of zero counts in the water before being considered safe for consumption. Both Mr. Pickles and the board were pretty sure that the counts would continue to test negative throughout the week.

A petition was received from the residents of Marconi Lane and Mill Street for the board to consider blocking off a section of the Mill Street extension from Spring Street to the Sippican Long Term Health Care Center. The residents are concerned about the high speed traffic on the road and the fact that it is being used as a short cut to Route 6. The board said they would take this matter under advisement.

Richard W. Marx next submitted a letter informing the board that he is resigning from the Marion School Committee, effective November 1, due to personal reasons. Mr. Marx noted that he has enjoyed working on the committee, but his new business schedule does not permit him to attend the regular meetings. Selectman Schaefer moved to accept his resignation and asked that a letter of appreciation be sent to Mr. Marx for his service to the town and the committee.

The town's Veteran's Day Committee sent notice to the board about the upcoming Veteran's Day Parade to be held on Thursday, November 11 at 1:30 pm in Wareham. The theme of this year's parade will be "The 50th Anniversary of World War II." Formation for the parade will commence at 12:30 pm at lower Main and Cedar Streets in Wareham.

Harbormaster George Jennings submitted two memos to the board: one regarding bids received for the 1988 Evinrude Outboard motors (two bids were received, but deemed unacceptable and rejected) and notification from the Division of Marine Fisheries that the Weweantic River is now open south of a line between two orange markers at the rear of 53 Dexter Road. The opening is effective October 21, 1993. The board granted permission to Mr. Jennings to dispose of said motors as he deemed necessary.

Mary E. Wardle, a town resident, submitted a letter of appreciation for the many town workers who assisted her during a recent motor vehicle accident at Front and South Streets. Ms. Wardle commended the members of the Marion Police Department, EMT's, and Executive Secretary Ray Pickles for "driving her car home" after the incident.

A notice was also received from Mothers Against Drunk Driving (MADD) citing their upcoming Red Ribbon Kickoff on November 6 at 2:00 pm in the Independence Mall in Kingston. MADD also encourages everyone to tie a red ribbon to a visible location on their vehicle to serve as a reminder to drive sober. Red Ribbon Volunteer night will also be held on November 10 at 7:00 pm at the organization's Plymouth County office in Halifax.

Mr. Pickles noted that a scheduled 7:15 pm Classification Hearing has been postponed until next week when the Board of Assessors certifies a tax rate for the town. Mr. Pickles said the hearing must be posted until the tax rate is certified by law. Another slated 7:45 pm meeting with the Sippican Lands Trust regarding a tree planting plan was also cancelled that night.

At 7:30 pm members of the Music Hall Study Committee came before the board to discuss their recommendation about the historic town building. Chairwoman Brenda Gibbons noted upon completion of her work with the committee and after submitting a formal report to the Board of Selectmen that her work has been a great experience and she was very pleased to have such cooperative people to work with.

"The biggest hangup we faced was when we started talking about financing some of our ideas," Ms. Gibbons said. "Aside from that, we have determined that the building is worth saving and our recommendation would be that the building be used as a community center (for all residents) due to its central location and historic significance."

Members of the committee noted that their essential charge was to make a recommendation to the Board of Selectmen as to what would be the best and most appropriate use for the structure. Throughout all their meetings, they noted that only supportive comments about the structure were received and no one ever recommended that the building be abandoned.

Selectman Winters asked that the project now be taken one step further and that Phase II be put into effect to raise money to fund the much-needed repairs. "Maybe we should put out a call for volunteers for Phase II of the committee," Selectman Winters said.

The board agreed that an offshoot of this committee should be formed in the near future to continue the important work begun by the study committee.

"We are very fortunate to have such a building in Marion," Ms. Gibbons said. "We should encourage all members of the town to help us to save this building."

Selectman Schaefer agreed. "It has to be a total community effort in order for it to succeed," she said.

There being no further matters to come before the board, they unanimously voted to adjourn for the evening at 8:00 pm.

Rochester Selectmen's MeetingOctober 25, 1993*

A regular meeting of the Rochester Board of Selectmen was called to order on Monday, October 25 at 7:00 pm by Chairwoman Lorraine Roy Hawkes. Also present were Selectman David L. Hughes, Selectman Michael Murphy and Administrative Secretary Shirley A. Ferreira.

After unanimously approving the minutes of the October 18 meeting, the board called a scheduled pole hearing at the request of New England Telephone to run underground wires from a conduit at the corner of New Bedford Road and Mattapoisett Road. Mr. Thibodeau was present representing New England Telephone.

The board unanimously approved the work as proposed, after which several residents present for the hearing came forward and noted their concerns as they were unable to hear the discussion. But both Selectman Hughes and Highway Surveyor Jeff Eldridge assured them that the work would not be done without supervision and Mr. Eldridge added that he would be present to make sure that if any damage were incurred to private or town property, it would be repaired by the company.

Bruce Maksy next came before the board regarding his inquiry last week about Parlowtown Road. Chairwoman Hawkes advised Mr. Maksy that she had talked to Town Counsel and was told that the question of whether or not the road was a right of way for property owners was a civil matter and something the town shouldn't be involved with.

Mr. Hughes noted that according to his opinion and from what he remembers of the time when the road was discontinued, it is still under the town's jurisdiction and was never deeded to any one or several property owners. He believes it is still a right of way, but whether or not property owners have a legal right of way there remains a civil matter.

"I would assume that (Parlowtown Road) is still town property," he said. "But that's only my opinion, not that of the (Board of Selectmen)."

Chairwoman Hawkes and Selectman Hughes also advised Mr. Maksy that they had found no deeded records granting property owners a right of way at the site. Mr. Maksy agreed to do further research into the matter himself and thanked the board for their time.

At 7:30 pm Ken Daggett and Donna Ziobro of CLEAN, Inc. came before the board to discuss the future of the group's recycling efforts in town. According to Mr. Daggett, the group was formed several years ago as a volunteer recycling entity with the hopes that the town would take over their duties in time. To date, CLEAN, Inc. has collected nearly 300 tons of newspaper and some 500 tons of plastic and glass for recycling during their monthly weekend drives.

"We're a small organization that has had to browbeat people into recycling," Mr. Daggett said. "We've been doing well, but we just feel we need a little more town involvement. We've done what we can do ... we're just tired and burnt out."

Mr. Daggett noted that the group will phase out their efforts beginning February 1, 1994 and will disband in April of that year. They have agreed to assist the town in continuing the ongoing recycling effort until that time, however. "We will gladly work with (the town) through April, 1994," he said. "We have a good recycling program in place and we hate to see it fall apart."

Chairwoman Hawkes said she understood the group's concerns and appreciated the fact that they were becoming frustrated in not getting any help. She suggested that their efforts to continue the program should be addressed to the town's Board of

"We don't want to simply walk out on this program," Ms. Ziobro said. "We want the town to take on the responsibility of recycling as part of the state mandate."

"The way I see it, Rochester has a good head start," agreed Mr. Daggett. "Other towns have had to start their programs from scratch. You've already got a successful program in place."

The board thanked Mr. Daggett and Ms. Ziobro for their efforts in the past and for voicing their concerns that evening.

Under incoming correspondence for the week, the board received the following:

- Memo from Town Clerk Naida L. Parker regarding payroll for part-time election workers in town. According to Ms. Parker, she would recommend paying all election workers as private contractors so that the town will not be liable for their unemployment compensation if they are no longer working in their full-time positions. The board unanimously agreed with Ms. Parker's suggestion.

In today's mail, Chairwoman Hawkes noted letters of interest in the vacancy on the town's board of Cemetery Commissioners from David Sylvia, New Bedford Road and John E. MacGregor of Mendell Road. The Cemetery Commission also sent a letter to the board recommending that Mr. MacGregor be selected to fill the vacancy left by William D. Watling's passing.

Chairwoman Hawkes asked that both candidates be asked to come before the board on November 8 before they agree to appoint either to the commission, as the Selectmen are unfamiliar with them. Her fellow board members agreed and the two will be asked to attend said meeting.

A scheduled meeting with FinCom Chairwoman Pat Ryan and Town Accountant Claudette Coutu regarding a change of date in the upcoming Special Town Meeting was cancelled as the potential problem had been resolved. The Special Town Meeting will be held as planned on Monday, November 1 at 7:30 pm in the Town Hall Conference Room.

Chairwoman Hawkes next noted that she had researched the property off of Burgess Avenue which the town has been trying to sell and found that no legal right of way exists to the plot. "The only deed I found was dated April 22, 1897 and it didn't specify anything about a right of way," she said. "If there's nothing in a deed, as far as I'm concerned, a right of way doesn't exist."

Selectman Hughes motioned that the nearly 4-acre piece of property be advertised at a minimum bid of $5,100 plus all back taxes and liens on the property (totalling about $3,000). But Selectman Murphy asked that no minimum be placed on the property; this way the board could solicit bids and award whichever they deemed reasonable, including back taxes and fees for the deed transfer. The motion was seconded and carried by a majority vote of the board. Chairwoman Hawkes abstained from voting on the matter as she felt the property was worth more than the suggested minimum bid despite not Chairwoman Hawkes next noted a letter from Everett J. Marder of Town Counsels Kopelman and Paige, P.C. regarding the purchase of a computer by Police Chief Walter V. Denham in 1990 and upon a request from Selectman Murphy. According to the letter, the town appropriated $1,500 for the purchase of a computer by the Police Department under Article 16 of the May 21, 1990 Town Meeting.

Mr. Marder noted that the chief purchased the computer in good faith, as he believed the unit would be compatible with the online data service to be installed in the department's cruisers this year. "His good faith expenditure of the funds for a computer which is used by the police department for other purposes lacks intent necessary to rise to the level of a punishable violation," he wrote.

Selectman Murphy said he had a few questions to ask Mr. Marder and was granted permission to call him by Chairwoman Hawkes.

Under Old Business, the board received a letter of resignation from Patrick Sullivan, who is stepping down from his position with the town's School Committee due to personal reasons. Chairwoman Hawkes also noted that Officer Sean Joyce will be graduating from the Police Academy on Friday, October 29, and requested that the board grant Town Clerk Naida Parker permission to swear him in as a full-time police officer on Saturday, October 30. The board unanimously approved the request. The board also unanimously approved the releasing of $500 as appropriated by Town Meeting vote for the Buzzards Bay Action Committee.

Dog Officer Tom Medeiros next came before the board to briefly ask their advice on the boarding of larger animals found loose within town. Mr. Medeiros wanted to know where these animals could be kept, especially horses, cows, goats and the like.

Selectman Hughes offered the use of his barn, which has three vacant stalls. He also recommended that the boarding fees collected from the owners of the animals ($12 per night) be donated to the Friends for Fun, as he wasn't interested in accepting money for this service. Mr. Medeiros thanked Selectman Hughes for his offer and asked anyone else who could offer to keep animals for a short period of time to contact either himself or the Board of Selectmen, c/o Town Hall.

Mr. Medeiros also asked that Steve Lecomte be appointed as an Assistant Dog Officer so he can gradually learn the duties of the job as Thomas Gayoski, Jr. is planning to phase out his involvement by April, 1994. The board unanimously agreed to appoint Mr. Lecomte as an Assistant Dog Officer for a term to expire on April 30, 1994.

There being no further matters to come before the board, they unanimously agreed to adjourn for the evening at 8:04 pm.

Tapes That Go Bump In The Night Top Ten Halloween Rentals

By Kenneth J. Souza

On the threshold of this Halloween weekend, you're sure to want to curl up by the television and enjoy a scary, creepy horror film in celebration of this macabre holiday. To make your selections a little easier, following is a list of recommended Top Ten Halloween Rentals, each guaranteed to give you at least one good scare this All Hallow's Eve.

1. Psycho. Starring Anthony Perkins, Janet Leigh, Vera Miles; directed by Alfred Hitchcock. Not rated (violence).

Probably the quintessential masterpiece from "the master" himself, Hitchcock's original black and white 1960 film is still eerily thrilling and scary after repeated viewings. The moody film doesn't depend on blood and gore to shock its audience, rather it lures people in with a remarkably twisted tale of madness. The late Anthony Perkins may forever be linked to Norman Bates, but performances like this come along only once in a lifetime.

2. Halloween. Starring Jamie Lee Curtis, Donald Pleasance, Nancy Loomis; directed by John Carpenter. Rated R (violence, some nudity and language).

Something of a homage to Hitchcock's classic, this 1978 film became the inspiration for a slew of substandard slasher films in the late '70's and early '80's. But few were able to match its sheer, edge-of-your-seat suspense and knack for realistic tension. One of the most successful low-budget films of all time, this John Carpenter tour-de-force utilizes little gore, but plenty of scream-inducing thrills.

3. Jaws. Starring Roy Scheider, Richard Dreyfuss, Robert Shaw; directed by Steven Spielberg. Rated PG (violence, some nudity, language).

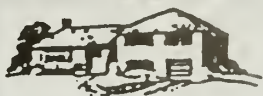

27-year old Steven Spielberg took his cameras to the beaches along Martha's Vineyard and brought back a nail-biting exercise in terror. Not since people had pledged to never take showers again after seeing Psycho has a film so traumatized the movie-viewing public. The early chords of John Williams' brilliant score still sends shudders down the spine as those all-too-familiar jagged teeth come rising out of the water, ready to chomp on another victim. After nearly twenty years, this film still has a bite.

4. The Exorcist. Starring Linda Blair, Ellen Burstyn, Max von Sydow; directed by William Friedkin. Rated R (violence, language, gore).

The first and still the most disturbing film about possession and religious exorcism, this mind-wrenching tale of a little girl in the clutches of an evil spirit sent many movie-goers reeling with its graphic images. Employing a perfect mix of nearly-unwatchable images, intense sound effects, and recurring subliminal programming, director Friedkin managed to scare the living daylight out of millions of people when this film emerged in 1973. Even by today's standards it remains terrifying, whether you believe in demonic possession or not.

5. Phantasm. Starring Angus Scrimm, Michael Baldwin, Reggie Bannister, Bill Thornbury; directed by Don Coscarelli. Rated R (violence, language, nudity, gore).

This miasma of horror and sci-fi cliches somehow pulls itself together into a truly unnerving film about ... well, I don't know. But it's still a fun — and often scary — 90-minute ride. Director Don Coscarelli uses a succession of dreamy sequences to tell the story of a demented funeral home director (Scrimm, known simply as "The Tall Man") who exhumes bodies after they've been buried to reduce them to pint-sized, hooded midgets resembling possessed Ewoks. (If it sounds odd, that's because it is.) But the film is well-balanced with edge-of-your-seat scenes and several plot twists which will leave you guessing until its final, shocking conclusion.

6. Salem's Lot. Starring David Soul, James Mason, Reggie Nalder, Lance Kerwin; directed by Tobe Hooper. Not rated (violence, some gore).

Surprisingly, this made-for-TV adaptation remains one of the best takes on a Stephen King novel. Despite not having the advantage of intense and gruesome special effects, it's still a chilling portrayal of the vampire legend in the small, rural New England town of Jerusalem's Lot. Director Hooper, who is most known for his grotesque, over-the-top Texas Chainsaw Massacre and the Spielberg-produced Poltergeist, manages to entice great performances out of this wonderful ensemble cast. The late James Mason and Reggie Nalder (whose character is a nod to Nosferatu) are ingenious as the mysterious antique dealers who come to the town and wreak havoc on its inhabitants.

7. The Wicker Man. Starring Edward Woodward, Christopher Lee, Britt Ekland; directed by Robin Hardy. Rated R (violence, some nudity, language).

A rare gem, this film is as disturbing and psychologically intense as its contemporary, The Exorcist. Edward Woodward (The Equalizer) plays a Scotland Yard officer who is sent searching for a missing girl. It turns out, she was taken in by an odd religious cult led by Lord Summerisle (Lee). When the officer delves deeper, he finds that the "practices" of said cult don't necessarily coincide with the law. This chilling portrait of religious fanaticism outdoes everything lame films like Children of the Corn and Deadly Blessing tried to achieve. And the second meaning behind the film's appropriate title isn't revealed until the final, chilling

8. Bram Stoker's Dracula. Starring Gary Oldman, Winona Ryder, Anthony Hopkins; directed by Francis Ford Coppola. Rated R (violence, nudity, language).

Despite a somewhat disappointing box office last year, this rich and visually-stunning version of Bram Stoker's original novel is eerie and moody enough to deserve recognition. Gary Oldman is wonderful as the many different incarnations of the archetypal "vampyre." Anthony Hopkins nearly outshines his own Hannibal Lecter as the scatter-brained Van Helsing. And Winona Ryder is perfectly cast as Mina, the bloodsucker's love interest. But the real star here is Coppola, who employs film-making techniques which have long since been abandoned to create a sense of style and atmosphere that command attention. Like the classic black and white horror films, this movie is a must-see Halloween treat.

9. Night of the Living Dead (1968). Starring Duane Jones, Judith O'Dea, Keith Wayne; directed by George A. Romero. Not rated (violence, gore).

The original zombie shocker, this black and white film set the standard for all "zombie/walking dead" movies to come. Surprisingly, it isn't as gruesome as many believe. Director Romero creates much of the tension and suspense by enclosing his small band of non-zombies in a small house from which they must defend themselves against the catatonic — and rather hungry — living dead. There are a few graphic scenes of the reanimated corpses partaking of some unfortunate human victims, but the black and white photography takes the bite (sic) out of most of it. Certainly not for the squeamish, but worth a few good thrills nevertheless.

10. Carrie. Starring Sissy Spacek, Piper Laurie, John Travolta, Nancy Allen, Amy Irving; directed by Brian DePalma. Rated R (violence, nudity, language).

An early collaboration between director Brian DePalma and fledgling author Stephen King yielded this chair-clutching movie about a misunderstood high school girl (Spacek) who has certain telekinetic powers which she uses to get back at her cruel classmates. Wonderful performances from the entire cast (many of which made their debut in this film) make this both a frightening and yet poignant film about teenage angst. Though far from overly graphic, DePalma used subtle tension devices, borrowed from Hitchcock, to create many suspenseful scenes. Most notable is the final confrontation between Carrie and her fanatical,

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:

On November 1, the Town of Mattapoisett will hold a Special Town Meeting to vote on fourteen articles. The Mattapoisett PTA would like to call the attention of voters to Article 11.

Due to the Education Reform Act of 1993, the Commonwealth of Massachusetts allocated approximately $25,000 to the town of Mattapoisett in additional aid for education this year. Article 11 addresses the appropriations of these funds.

If approved by the voters on November 1, these funds would provide for equipment purchases and improvements for both Center and Old Hammondtown Schools without affecting the school budget and appropriations already in place.

There will be no cost to the town for appropriating these funds. Neither the schools' budgets nor the tax rate will be affected by the passing of this article. This is an unprecedented opportunity to provide for the children without encumbrance to the town coffers.

We urge all voters to attend the Special Town Meeting on November 1 and vote yes on Article 11!

Deborah L. DeWalt, President
Mattapoisett PTA

To the Editor:

The battle is waging, the war is not over, yet.

It is time for us to unite in large numbers and hold the line. We must not lay back or back down but show now, more than ever, that we do not want incineration of PCB's and other heavy metals!! It is a dangerous technology and only the beginning of what the EPA has in store for us. We do not want the cure worse than the illness. We believe it is and incineration is not acceptable to us.

Be at the Rally Against Hazardous Waste Incineration on Sunday, October 31, 1993 at 2:00 pm at the foot of Sawyer Street in New Bedford. Bring your children, your relatives, your friends. Let us band together and make a difference. People power does work! Together we can stop this gross injustice!

Halloween Parade in Marion

The town of Marion will also be getting into the spirit of things with their own Halloween Parade and festivities to be held on Sunday, October 31 beginning at 2:30 pm at Island Wharf. Participants are encouraged to wear unique and original costumes as prizes and other Halloween "treats" will be awarded for the best ones.

Hands Across the River Costume Rally

On Halloween Day, October 31, there will be a rally against hazardous waste and PCB incineration at 2:00 pm at the foot of Sawyer Street in New Bedford. Wearing costumes is encouraged, although not necessary.

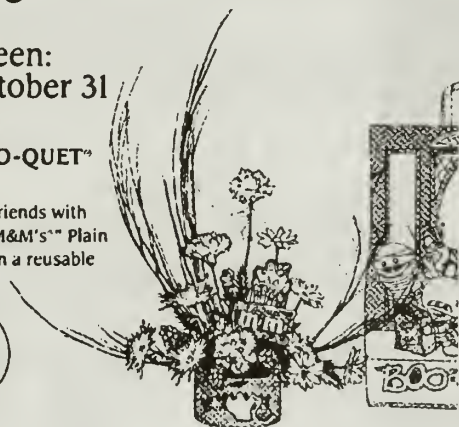

The rally is sponsored by Hands Across the River and other civic groups — including Concerned Parents of Fairhaven and the Downwind Coalition — who support alternatives to burning PCB's, toxic waste and heavy metals as part of the clean-up of the Acushnet River.

West Island Chamber of Horrors

The West Island Chamber of Horrors in Fairhaven is again opening with two horrific nights of fun. The Chamber will be open on Friday, October 29 from 7:00 to 11:00 pm and Saturday, October 30 from 6:00 to 11:00 pm. Please note that the ticket booth closes 15 minutes earlier each night.

Every year the Chamber is completely redesigned with new frights, sights, themes and surprises. The Chamber Committee continuously strives to provide the community with a safe and fun Halloween activity.

Refreshments will be available and for those who fear the dark, "nightmarish" environment, the ever-popular self-activated glow necklaces will be on sale. Don't miss the fun, horror and frights of the West Island Chamber of Horrors. Admission is still only $1.25 for adults, and $1.00 for kids.

Halloween Holiday Tips

The Mattapoisett Fire Department would like to offer the following tips for a safe and Happy Halloween...

- Children should carry a flashlight and costumes should be made of bright colors or have reflective tape on them.
- Be sure all parts of a costume are labeled "flame retardant."
- Pointed objects such as swords should be made of soft material.
- If your child wears a mask instead of make-up on their face, double check that the eye holes are large enough to see through.
- Use a flashlight instead of a candle in pumpkins.
- Use only flame-proof crepe paper for decorations.
- Keep dry leaves and cornstalks away from all flames and heat sources.
- Firecrackers, cherry bombs and party poppers are dangerous and cause many injuries and fires. Remember: Fireworks are illegal in Massachusetts.

- Make sure your home is well lit and that there is a clear path to the door for trick or treaters.
- Inspect all candy, fruits and goodies. Throw away anything that looks tampered with or that you are not sure about.
- Each year around Halloween, we turn our clocks back one hour. This is a good time to change the batteries in your smoke detector.
- Small children should always have an adult with them when they go trick or treating.
- If older children are going out without you, go over the ground rules first, set a time for them to come home, know what neighborhoods they will be in and have them stay in a group at all times.
- Give children a dime to use the telephone if necessary.

• Instruct children to cross only at corners and to cover only one side of the street at a time. No criss-crossing.

From all the personnel at the Mattapoisett Fire Department: have a safe and spooky Halloween!

History of the Scarab

Ancient Egyptians worshiped the Scarab Beetle as an omen of fertility, resurrection and immortality. They wore stones cut to resemble these beetles as good luck pieces and when their kings died they scattered these stones around the tombs. Thus...the scarab has been handed down from generation to generation as a sign of good luck and good fortune.

scholarship to assist in his studies at the University of Massachusetts Amherst.

Candidates for the Ouimet Scholarship must have completed three seasons "service to golf" at a Massachusetts golf course as caddies or helpers in the pro shop or course superintendent operations. The Ouimet Award is a competitive, need-based undergraduate scholarship. This year's Ouimet Scholarships represent 103 Massachusetts golf clubs and 108 colleges and universities.

"We had one of the largest application pools ever and we're delighted to be able to increase our awards by $40,000 this year," said Ouimet Fund President Edward Kenerson. "All of the award winners are outstanding young people, and we are very proud to help them."

A Victorian setting is the perfect foil for the charming Brewster sisters, who along with an assorted cast of zany characters weave a tale that will humor the audience. Paul Sardinha, who directed last spring's sold out performance of "Grease," is directing the talented cast. You won't want to miss the comedy. The cast and crew of ORR High School students have been working very diligently to produce an authentic, old-fashioned comedy that the entire family can enjoy.

Children's Book Fair at Sippican School

Flying High, Sippican School's Paperback Book Fair for Children opens to the public starting at 9:00 am, Tuesday, November 2, in the Auditorium of Sippican School on Spring Street, Marion. For three days, this fair has the largest selection of quality children's paperbacks in one place in southeastern Massachusetts.

The fair will be open all day Tuesday and Wednesday from 9:00 am to 7:00 pm. On Thursday, November 4, it will be open a half-day, 9:00 am to 12:00 noon for those who tend towards last-minute inspirations. (There are special set-aside hours on Monday, November 1, for Kindergarten and First Grade students and their parents.)

Flying High is a "hands on" fair. Everything on display may be purchased — no ordering, no waiting. Selections run from pre-school board books through advanced Sixth Grade. Reference books and workbooks are also included as are books on crafts and jokes for children.

A special Parents and Grandparents Table, stocked by The Bookstall in Marion, will have more expensive paperbacks, treasured and difficult to find classics, boxed sets and many beautifully illustrated hardcovers for birthday and holiday giving. And, by special request, there will also be cookbooks for both young and old.

The fair is organized by VASE (Volunteers At Sippican Elementary) in cooperation with The Bookstall in Marion. It is staffed by VASE volunteers whose work makes Flying High possible. The public is welcome throughout the day as well as in the after-school and evening hours. Notices indicating the times each class will be attending the fair are being sent home so parents may join their children in the auditorium.

Profit from the Flying High book fair goes to VASE which uses the money to supply needed extras for Sippican School's Library, Resource Center and to support other VASE school activities.

community audiences of up to 600 for years. For the last two years a Senior High Pep Band has been added to the agenda to cheer on the ORR Football Team. The Pep Band proves to be a great success. This year the Bulldogs are undefeated.

The annual FORM Music Festival and Pot Luck Dinner held on October 7, 1993 at the ORR Junior High School Cafetorium was another great success. Over 200 Old Rochester performers, family members and friends attended. Solo and duet junior and senior high student performances and the senior high Pep Band were outstanding. The junior high performers were Alissa Cook, Molly Gilmour, Sarah Mui, Danielle Normand, Katie Rose, Jessica Brodeur, Kate Donovan, Gretchen Vandal, Kathryn Upton, Erin Lawrence, Jamie Sacramento, Sandra Collins, and Nancy Lima.

Special recognition to Rebecca Correia for her solo performance of her own composition. The senior high performers were Revel Gilmore, Sarah Leatham, Patrick O'Shaughnessy, Adam Kolek, Jeremy Smith, and Shannon McGowan. Compliments to the many parents who provided the delicious "pot luck" dinner for all present.

In November several musicians from ORR will be auditioning for the southeastern Massachusetts District Concert. November 9 is the Senior District Jazz Audition; November 20 is the Senior District Concert Audition; and Junior High District Auditions take place on December 4.

A major fundraiser, "the big one," for the music department of the Junior and Senior ORR High Schools is currently underway. FORM (the Friends of Old Rochester Music) is having a benefit

Marion-Wareham Veterans' Day Parade

The Marion-Wareham Veterans' Day Parade Committee wishes to once again extend to everyone an invitation to participate in the Annual Veterans' Day Parade and observance. This year it will be held in Wareham on Thursday, November 11 at 1:30 pm. The theme of this year's parade will be "The 50th Anniversary of World War II." This will mark the 34th annual celebration of this parade.

The parade will form at lower Main Street and Cedar Street in the vicinity of Warr's Marina and extend to Besse Park in Wareham. The time for form up will be at 12:30 pm with a starting time of 1:30 pm. The parade will follow Route 6 and travel along Main Street through the center of Wareham to Marion Road, take a left onto Marion Road at Chapel Hill, proceed to the Memorial Town Hall. The reviewing stand will be on Main Street in front of the Fire Station. The awards ceremony will take place at the War Memorial next to Town Hall after the judges have made their decisions. If inclement weather forces a cancellation, a ceremony will be held inside Town Hall.

This year, immediately following the parade, there will be a dedication of a memorial plaque at the flag pole outside the Wareham Free Public Library. The library is the site of the "Arruda Memorial." Richard Arruda was a lifetime resident of Wareham who was killed in action during the Vietnam War.

Following the parade, refreshments will be served in the cafeteria in the basement of Town Hall. For further information about the parade and Veterans' Day observance, please call the Benjamin D. Cushing Post 2425 VFW in Marion at 748-9750.

Marion Art Center

The Trip to Bountiful

"The Trip to Bountiful," a play by Horton Foote, opens at the Marion Art Center on November 4. The show will run two weekends, Thursday through Saturday, November 4-6 and 11-13 at 8:00 pm. This humorous, warm-hearted drama was made into an award-winning film in 1985 and featured Geraldine Page in the role of Mrs. Watts, an aging woman who wants to go home. Ms. Page received an Academy Award for her performance.

The Marion Art Center production is directed by Christopher LeBlanc and features veteran actress Kay Sweeney as Mrs. Watts. Her son and daughter-in-law are portrayed by Richard Pacheco and Anne Schenck. Set in the 1940's, the play explores the problems and relationships between generations and older people as they become more difficult to deal with. Sometimes funny, often touching things happen when Mrs. Watts escapes from her son's apartment in Houston, Texas and takes off in search of her childhood home in Bountiful. We are reminded of our own ageless dreams and the memories we can never recapture as we follow along on her journey.

Supporting characters in "The Trip to Bountiful" include Jessica Shepardson, Donn Tyler, Jim Carr and Charlie Murphy. Reservations are

Exhibition Committee

The Exhibition Committee of the Marion Art Center will meet on Tuesday, November 2 at 4:30 pm. Artists interested in having their work considered for a show in 1994 should send slides and resume to: Marion Art Center, Box 602, Marion, MA 02738. Local artists may bring in five original, framed pieces for consideration on Tuesday, November 2 between 1:00 and 4:00 pm.

Performing Arts Committee

The Performing Arts Committee of the Marion Art Center is accepting proposals for plays and musicals for the 1994 season. Directors, music directors, actors, singers and musicians are being sought. Please contact the office at the Marion Art Center (748-1266) if you are interested in directing or performing.

David Baggarly Exhibit

A one-person exhibition of paintings by David Baggarly is now on display at the Marion Art Center through November 12. David Baggarly grew up in Mattapoisett and attended ORR Junior and Senior High Schools. He received his BFA from the Maryland Institute of Art in Baltimore and is a professional artist now residing in Providence, RI.

Mr. Baggarly has been working for several years toward this exhibition in which he hopes to show "the whole artist" instead of just one aspect. The landscapes will be hung in the Cecil Clark Davis gallery and the personal expressions will be installed in the Patsy Francis gallery. Both galleries at the Marion Art Center are open to the public Tuesday through Friday, 1:00 to 5:00 pm and Saturday, 10:00 am to 2:00 pm. Admission is FREE.

St. Gabriel's Church — Marion

St. Gabriel's Episcopal Church in Marion will celebrate Holy Communion at 8:00 am in the Chapel and Holy Baptism (for James Mock) at 10:00 am in the Church on Sunday, October 31. The adult forum at 9:00 am in the library will take up the topic of Racial Tension.

During the week following on November 5 and 6, the Diocesan Convention will be held at the Hotel Cape Codder in Hyannis.

On Sunday, November 7, Holy Communion will be held at both the 8:00 am Chapel service and the 10:00 am Church service. The forum at 9:00 am will be privileged to have the Canon Missioner of the Diocese, Edward Rodman, speak on Race and Reconciliation. Canon Rodman will also preach at 10:00 am.

The Vestry will attend a one-day retreat on Saturday, November 13, at the Episcopal Church of the Good Shepherd in Wareham.

Activities on Sunday, November 14, will include 8:00 am Holy Communion in the Chapel, and 10:00 am Morning Prayer in the Church when a parishwide celebration of the 1994 Every Member Canvass will take place. Between services the adult forum on Addictive Personalities will be moderated by Peter Campbell, a consultant and counselor.

Mattapoissett Lions Club

Upcoming Meetings

The Lions Club Board will meet on Monday, November 1 at 7:00 pm at Antone's Restaurant. The entire club will also meet at Antone's on Wednesday, November 10 and Thanksgiving evening, November 24 for an informal meeting with Italian buffet.

Don't forget: the mid-winter conference will be held on January 14 - 16. The package plans and payment schedule was published in the last Lions Club bulletin. For more details, contact the King Lion at 758-3449.

Marion Recreation Committee

The Marion Recreation Committee will hold registration for children and adults for its mid-winter programs on Tuesday, November 2 in the Sippican School gym from 6:30 to 8:00 pm. Programs will include:

- Youth — ice skating, tennis lessons, basketball.
- Adult — floor hockey, indoor tennis, volleyball, basketball.

Because of space restrictions, Marion Recreation programs are open to Marion residents only and to adults employed in Marion.

Falmouth Theater to Present "Amadeus"

The Falmouth Theater Guild of Falmouth, MA is currently staging Peter Shaffer's acclaimed "Amadeus" at the Highfield Theater through November 7. Shows are slated for October 29 and 30 at 8:00 pm, November 5 and 6 at 8:00 pm, and a closing matinee on Sunday, November 7 at 2:00 pm.

Local players in the production include Paul David Gibbs of Rochester in the lead role of Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart and Charles Murray, also of Rochester, who plays Emperor Joseph II, the head of the Austrian Court.

"Amadeus" is a show which reaches out to a broad audience, offering a non-traditional fall show," said producer Barbara Fitzmaurice. "This play grants us a strikingly powerful look into a world famous composer and the uniqueness of his character and humor as well as the great trials of his life."

The audience will be entertained by a cast and production staff comprised of a solid and diverse group of experienced, motivated and extremely talented individuals. The Cape Cod Times has hailed the show "a powerful and largely successful production."

Mattapoisett Seniors to Meet on November 4

The Mattapoisett Seniors Club will hold its next meeting on November 4 in St. Anthony's Church Hall instead of on November 11, the holiday.

At 12:00 noon, a soup and sandwich luncheon will be served. The monthly business meeting will be followed by a games program and the awarding of prizes.

On December 9 the club's annual Christmas festivities will be held at a place to be announced. The chairwomen will be Miss Florence Huetteman and Miss Mary C. Doyle. Members are reminded that dues should be paid at the November meeting.

Sippican Historical Museum Closed for Winter

The Sippican Historical Museum will be closed for the winter season. Inquiries can be made by calling 748-0927, or 748-1375 (evenings).

Well-Child Clinic in Marion

A Well-Child Clinic will be held on Tuesday, November 2 at 9:00 am at the Marion Visiting Nurse Association Offices, Sippican School on Spring Street in Marion. Dr. Charles S. Gleason will give physical exams, immunizations, hemoglobin counts and lead screenings to eligible Marion and Rochester children, newborn to preschool age. Donation is $5 per child. For information or appointment call 748-1020.

Mattapoisett Friends to Hold Auction

Paper collectibles, rich in historical items from southeastern Massachusetts, will be auctioned off on October 30 for the benefit of the Mattapoisett Friends Meeting (Quaker), 103 Marion Road (Route

6) in East Mattapoisett.

The items, including many suitable for framing, range from printed billheads to old checks, and from atlases of Plymouth and Bristol counties to a nearly complete journal by Gideon Devoll of Dartmouth on an 1849 voyage from New Bedford to San Francisco on the ex-whaleship Otranto.

There are 23 lots featuring postcards, some in bulk; lots of whaling ephemera, dozens of books, many published in the 1800's; and hundreds of American newspapers and magazines, many dating from the Civil War period.

It is the fourth such benefit to be held by the Meeting. The last sale in April attracted floor bidders from every New England state, New York and Pennsylvania, plus mail bidders from throughout the country.

The auction will get underway at 9:30 am on Saturday, October 30 in the meeting hall. Viewing will be from 7:00 to 9:00 pm on Friday, October 29 (when absentee bids will be accepted) and from 7:00 to 9:30 am preceding the sale. Auctioneer for the event will be Dennis Broadbent.

Adoptable Animals

An Old Dog's Tale

The folks at Animal Umbrella have two featured animals for adoption this week. One is a very old dog who has been on her own for a long time and showed up as a stray. She is a mixed breed, medium sized pooch who has still lots of life and fun in her. She has been vet checked and received a clean bill of health. She is just too sweet to put down and is seeking a good retirement home. If you can help, please call 996-6111.

Our second featured pet is also a geriatric case. The lost cat advertised in last week's issue ironically showed up at the cattery. He has been neutered and has had all the necessary shots. He is friendly, lovable and just needs a warm home, some food and love. If there is anyone who could provide this for old Tommy, please call one of the Animal Umbrella representatives — Priscilla at 758-2896; Mary Lou at 758-9202; Tara at 748-2164 or Diane at 997-4037.

Good news this week! Our adult offerings (the mother and son combo) have been placed in a wonderful home in Acushnet together. All the other adults listed here last week, however, are still available:

- an all-white spayed female with gorgeous blue eyes
- a "Socks" look-a-like: black and white spayed female with double paws and has had all her shots

- a very distinct Calico with gray, brown, black and white — she has green eyes and is very clean and friendly (she was abandoned by her owner)

- an orange tabby, about two years old, neutered male (also abandoned by owner).

If you are interested in any of these offerings, unless otherwise noted please call one of the above Animal Umbrella representatives.

New offerings this week include:

- one long-haired tiger female (eight weeks old)

- one long-haired white and black female
- one short-haired male
- one short-haired tiger female
- one short-haired white with tiger markings.

All above kittens are in foster care at Tara's in Marion. Please call 748-2164.

The Wanderer would like to remind other private pet owners that they can use this free space to find a new home for pets they may have to part with due to a change in living arrangements, new babies, or the like. Simply write up a full description of the animal and drop it off at our office (55 County Road, Route 6) or mail it to P.O. Box 102, Mattapoisett, MA 02739. Please note: this is only for those who are giving pets away. Any trades or sales must be placed as a paid advertisement.

ORRJHS Plans for Senior Thanksgiving Dinner

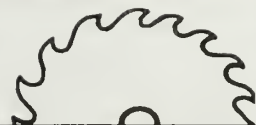

Plans are underway for the Third Annual Senior Citizen Thanksgiving Dinner to be held on Sunday, November 21 from 11:30 am to 2:00 pm at the Old Rochester Regional Junior High School. Tri-town senior citizens should plan on signing up at their local Council on Aging (COA) office. Fifty tickets are available for each center on a first-come, first-served basis. If you are in need of a ride, please inform your COA office when signing up for the event.

Friends of the Elderly — Mattapoisett Chicken Pot Pie Supper Changed

The Chicken Pot Pie Supper which was to be held on November 6 has been changed to November 13. The time and place are the same — 5:30 to 7:00 pm at St. Anthony Church Hall. The cost will be $6 for adults and $4 for children. Tickets can be obtained from Ginny at 758-9722 or Lorraine at 758-9780. The Christmas ornaments designed by George C. Avila (Seahorse, Ned's Point Lighthouse, and the Center School), will be on sale at the supper and also

A powerful prayer to the Holy Spirit -
 Holy Spirit, you who solve all problems, who light all roads so I can attain my goals, you who give me the divine gifts to forgive and forget all evil against me, in this short prayer, to thank you for all things and confirm once again that I never want to be separated from you, even in spite of all material illusions. I wish to be with you in eternal glory, thank you for your mercy towards me and mine. The person must say this prayer for three consecutive days. After three days, the favor requested will be granted, even if it may appear difficult. This prayer must be published immediately after the favor is granted without mentioning the favor. Only your initials shall appear at the bottom. P.A.

A PRAYER TO THE BLESSED VIRGIN
 O most beautiful flower of Mount Carmel, fruitful vine, splendor of Heaven, Blessed Mother of the Son of God. Immaculate Virgin assist me in my necessity. O Star of the Sea, help me and show me here you are my mother. O Holy Mary, Mother of God, Queen of Heaven and Earth, I humbly beseech you from the bottom of my heart to secure me in my necessity (make request). There are none that can withstand your power. O Mary conceived without sin pray for us who have recourse to thee (3 times). Holy Mary, I place this cause in her hands (3 times). Say this prayer for three consecutive days and then you must publish; it will be granted to you. C.H.

ST. JUDE'S NOVENA
 May the Sacred Heart of Jesus be adored, glorified, loved and preserved throughout the world now and forever. Sacred Heart of Jesus, pray for us. St. Jude, worker of miracles, pray for us. St. Jude, help of the hopeless, pray for us.
 Say this prayer 9 times a day. By the 8th day your prayer will be answered. Say it for 9 days. It has never been known to fail.
 Publication must be promised. Thank You, St. Jude. C.H.

Hi - my name is Kitty and I need a home. I'm a male semi-long hair with a fluffy tail and I'm dark buff colored with an orange tint. I'm 4 1/2 months old. I was abandoned at age 5 weeks by people who moved away and my mother took me in. She's very fond of me but can't keep me. I need a kind and loving person or family to live with. I'm very social and love gentle children and other cats. I need a safe yard and a very quiet street because I'm very frisky. I've had my shots and I'm box trained. If you'd like to love and be kind to me, please call my mother at 758-4459.
